

Welcome to the written portion of your pretest.

- Are you ready?
- Here are some things to remember.
- Take extra care to be as neat with your handwriting as you are clear with your answers.

Lets begin by filling out the top of your test paper

- Instructors Name:
- Instructors Dan
Number:
- Your Name:
- Age:

Here is the information:

- Master Ron Tramontano
- WBK00001
- Your Name:
- Your Age:

We are now ready for the first question:

- Draw the characters for “Pyong Ahn” and briefly describe each one.

The first character we will draw will be Pyung:

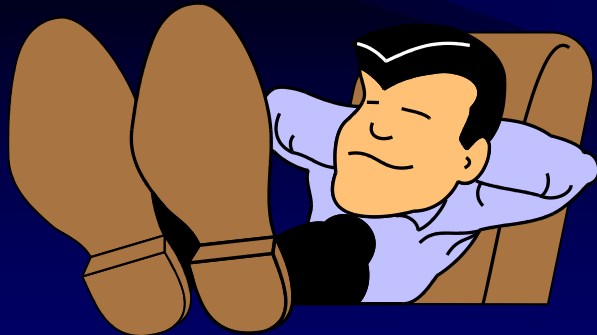

- This character, whose shape resembles that of a balance scale, corresponds to the English terms: well balanced, calm and peaceful.

This is the character for Ahn:

- This character corresponds to the English term: safe, confident and comfortable.

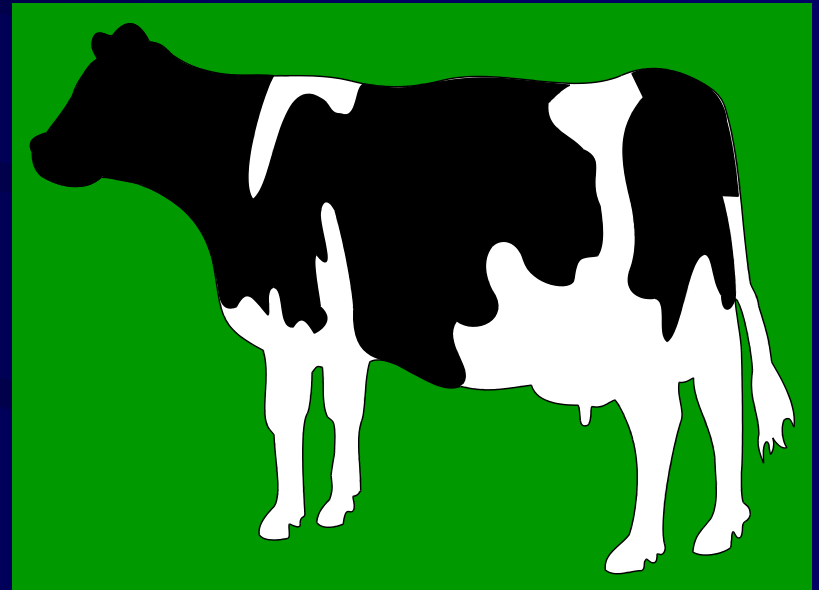

Question Two:

- Draw the character for “Moo”. Describe its meaning.

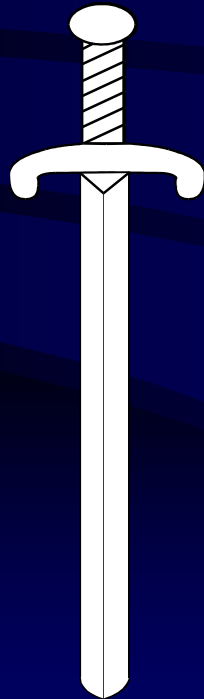

Wrong

- Moo

- The first part of the character looks like the letter “t” and is translated as “sword or “spear” which means war

Moo

Moo

- The second character is translated as prevention or “not willing”.
- So, actually, the word for military means to not want war or to prevent war.

Question Three

- Explain the term “Cho Dan”.

A first degree Black Belt

- Hello, we are very happy you will be joining us.

Question Four

- Explain the meaning of our belt system.

White Belt:

- Season: Winter
 - Emptiness is placed on:
 - Innocence
 - Hidden potential
 - Purity
-
- Just like a new baby.
 - Just like snow covering the earth.

Green Belt:

- The season it represents is spring.
 - Growth
 - Spreading
 - Advancement
-
- In the spring the flowers bloom.

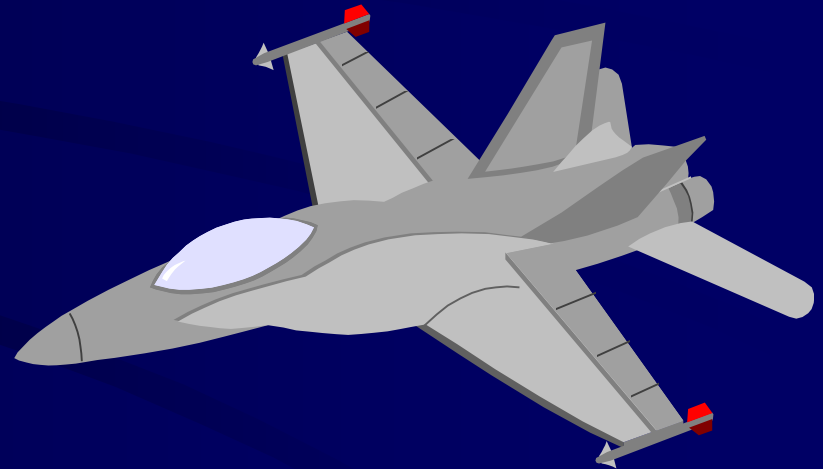

Red Belt:

- The season is Summer.
- Ripening
- Thinking
- Active
- Experience

Black Belt:

- The season is Autumn.
- Unlimited Depth
- As vast as the Universe
- It can cover or protect all that lye in its path.

Question Five:

- How will you
Contribute to your studio as a 1st. Dan?

?